General Contract Terms

By reserving table space as a gun show vendor, you agree to abide by our contract terms and acknowledge that you have read them and understand that as the promoter, both we and the venues we contract with may make additional rules to keep BVRPC shows safe, welcoming spaces for vendors, staff, and the public.

- No Loaded Firearms – Including Concealed Carry
- No Loose Ammunition
- All Firearms entering the property must have a tie

I understand that alcohol is not permitted on the premises

Pennsylvania FFL dealers must have PA state license to sell firearms. Out of state FFL dealers must comply with all state and federal laws for PA and their home state.

- Vendors must remain set-up for the duration of the gun show
  1. No loaded firearms are allowed on the premises. All guns must be unloaded and tied or cable-locked. No loose ammunition is allowed, and magazines must be kept unloaded. This includes concealed carry.
  2. You agree to obey all local, state, and federal laws. Protecting our 2nd Amendment rights is a responsibility we all share. It is your duty to know and comply with the rules and regulations that apply to you and your products.
  3. No pets are allowed. Service animals are gladly welcomed in accordance with all applicable legal requirements.
  4. No alcohol on premises
  5. All tables must be prepaid. Your table is not secured until payment is received. Please allow 10-14 days for mailed payments to reach our office and process.
  6. Electricity access fees are due on check-in. Tables that offer electricity access often go early, so it's important to get your reservation in to hold your table space.
  7. No refunds within two weeks of the date of the show. No refunds will be issued less than 14 calendar days from the date of the show, and no exceptions will be made.
  8. Pennsylvania FFL dealers must have PA state license to sell firearms. Out of state FFL dealers must comply with all state and federal laws for PA and their home state.
